Alaska USA Extra Credit

Account Agreement

(Retail Installment Credit Agreement)

1. Definitions: The definitions listed below apply whenever these words are used in the Agreement. "We," "us," and "our" mean Alaska USA Federal Credit Union, P.O. Box 196602, Anchorage, Alaska 99519-6602. "You" and "your" mean the person(s) who signed the Alaska USA Extra Credit Application and Agreement or otherwise agreed to open an Alaska USA Extra Credit account ("Account") with us and each person who is authorized to use the Account established by us. "Credit Card" means the credit card issued to you by us to allow you to make purchases on credit from time to time under your Account at selected merchant location(s). The effective date of this Agreement is the date we approve the Account, or the first day we approve an extension of credit for a purchase by you evidenced by a signed sales invoice or memorandum or otherwise made with the Credit Card. Please read this Agreement carefully, because by signing the Application or accepting the Credit Card, you will be agreeing with us to everything written here.

2. Payment: You will pay us for credit we extend on your behalf to pay for all purchases (including mail and phone orders) made by you, and all other amounts owed to us under the terms of this Agreement. "Purchases" includes any purchases in which you have evidenced an intent to obtain credit from us, regardless of whether you have signed a sales invoice. When there is a balance due, called "New Balance," on the monthly billing statement ("statement"), you will pay, in time for receipt by us by the Payment Due Date, at least the Minimum Payment called for.

3. Finance Charges: When your Account has a balance subject to Finance Charge, we will charge a FINANCE CHARGE, calculated on that balance at a monthly periodic rate ("Periodic Rate") of 1.4917%, which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 17.90%.

How Alaska USA will calculate your balance: Alaska USA uses a method called "average daily balance (including new purchases)."

This information is accurate as of September 2012.

4. Balance Subject to Finance Charge: We will figure the Finance Charge on your Account by applying the Periodic Rate to the "Average Daily Balance" of your Account, which is figured by adding the outstanding balance (including new purchases and deducting payments and credits) for each day in the billing cycle, and then dividing by the number of days in the billing cycle.

5. When Finance Charges Begin: New purchases are added in determining the daily balances and will incur a Finance Charge from the date they are posted to your Account. There is no period in which credit extended may be paid without incurring a Finance Charge except where the terms of an applicable special financing plan provide for the deferral of a Finance Charge for a defined period of time.

6. Minimum Payment: You agree to pay the Minimum Payment each time we send you a statement, plus, in each case, any past due amount(s). The Minimum Payment will be the greater of $20, or 1/30th of the highest balance of your Account, rounded to the next highest dollar, since it last had a $0 balance. When your New Balance is less than $20, you must pay us your total balance. You may at any time pay more than the Minimum Payment or your entire balance in full; however, a Minimum Payment is required on the Due Date each month that there is a balance except where the terms of an applicable special financing plan defer the minimum payment due for a defined period of time.

7. Default: You will be in default on this Agreement if you do not make at least the Minimum Payment on or before the Payment Due Date, you try to exceed your credit limit, you become subject to bankruptcy or insolvency

Billing Rights

Keep this notice for future use: This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify us in case of errors or questions about your bill: If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the address shown on your statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.
- If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop that payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter must reach us three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your rights and our responsibilities after we receive your written notice: We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell anyone we reported you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special rules for credit card purchases: If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the amount due on the remaining property or services. There are two limitations on this right:

- (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
